Procedure for submitting a prospective applicant for Membership

1. Current member in good standing with at least 1-year membership with the club may sponsor a person for membership with the York Rifle Range Association.
2. The Member Sponsor is vouching for the character of the person they are sponsoring for membership with the Club.
3. The Member Sponsor should take the prospective member on a tour of the Club facilities.
During the tour the following should be reviewed.
 - a. It should be explained how each range is properly used.
 - b. The Club Rules and Regulations.
 - c. Proper conduct while on Range Property
 - d. Hours of permitted shooting at the Outdoor and Indoor ranges.
 - e. Hours members are allowed to be on the Club property.
 - f. Proper use, care and clean-up of any area used.
 - g. How to pay for food, earplugs, Card holders and targets obtained at the Range.
 - h. How to use the Key Card to enter the range and/or Club house.
 - i. How and when to lock up the club when leaving if they are the last one at the club.
 - j. When Membership fees are due. December 31st each year, no invoice is mailed.
4. Obtain an Application for Membership Waiting List form while at the club and have the prospective member complete all information on it and mail to the PO Box address listed on the back of the form. Or they can email a PDF version for the completed form to YRMembership@comcast.net.
5. Prior to being presented at a Monthly Club meeting to the attending Members, Prospective Members are required to attend a Pre-Membership briefing to review Club Rules and Regulations, Safe use of the Club and Grounds, expected conduct of a Member and the Honor System used at the Club. Normally this meeting is held about 1 hour prior to the start of the regular monthly meeting. Exceptions may occur at the discretion of the Membership Committee. Unless other arrangements are confirmed, New members should plan on attending the Pre-membership meeting on the second Tuesday of the month and should arrive at the club by 6:30pm.
